

Napersoft Opens New Office in McLean, VA to Address Growing Business with the Federal Government

Naperville, IL – Dec. 2, 2010 – Napersoft, a leading provider of Customer Communications Management (CCM) software, has opened a new office in McLean, VA. The strategic new office location, in the heart of the federal technology community, is a direct response to the increasing demand for Napersoft’s CCM solutions by the public sector.

“We are excited to be part of the Washington D.C. community and to provide regional support for our growing business with the federal government,” said Steve Chamberlin, VP of Sales and Marketing at Napersoft. “Expanding our presence demonstrates a commitment to our customers and partners in the area and will support our active participation in the community.”

The new office supports the company’s aggressive growth strategy and increases Napersoft’s leadership in the public sector. “We continue to invest in building our team and infrastructure so that we can deliver innovative solutions to our customers,” said Bart Carlson, CEO of Napersoft. “Continued strong demand for our CCM solutions are the result of ongoing development and delivery of robust functionality and unparalleled customer service.”

Napersoft’s new office is located at 1600 Tysons Boulevard, 8th floor, McLean, Virginia and can be reached by phone at (800) 380-1000.
